SPECIAL SCHOOL ELECTIONS

it was decided to call a special election In the near future to vote on the question of bonding the district for $30,000. At a meeting held some time ago Sumembers of the board the advisability of preparing an additional room for the next years.

Maish 21, at 2 p. m., at O'Donnell & Co.'s family group photographs. Kindly repreparing an additional room for the next years. perintendent Mumford placed before the next year, as the schools have been badly crowded this season, and there is also need for high school facilities. The build-need for high school facilities. The building committee met Wednesday evening, at which time the subject was briefly discussed, and it was then decided to call a special meeting of the board yesterday. Chairman Orson Sanders presided at the meeting and all the members of the board were present. If the bonds are voted a building to be used for the double purpose of a grade and high school will be erected.

Superintendent Mumford states that the building is a necessity in view of the present crowded condition of the Murray schools, and that it is highly desirable to schools, and that it is highly desirable to make a beginning in the way of a high school in Murray. Yesterday was pay day, and $1,445 was distributed among the instructors of the Arlington, Liberty and Ploneer schools. MUSICAL CARNIVAL.

The musical carnival which has been under way for the past two months will commence Monday. The musicians are practicing for the different events, and the final preparations are being completed. The outlook is that there will be a large attendance at each session of the arnival and that Murray will be filled

THE FIGHTING CHANCE.

(Chicago News.) (Chicago News.)

That the language of signs—even when pictorially illustrated—is liable to misconstruction was brought home to two American women during a visit to Seville. It happened in the best known hotel of that Andalusian city. They sighed for milk; but all their efforts to make the waiter understand were fruitless until one of them took paper and pencil and sketched what was intended to represent a cow. With a quick smile of intelligence the man disappeared and presently returned with tickets for the built fight. with tickets for the bull fight
